

POPLI Consulting Engineers & Surveyors

transforms into

GOING VERTICAL

We are pleased to announce the addition of an Architecture Division and re-branding of the firm as Popli Design Group (PDG). With the addition of Architectural Division, PDG will expand and provide services for vertical structures including institutional, municipal and commercial. This is one of the first steps in a series to implement the firm's long term strategic plan to be a fully multi-discipline A/E firm.
